Ford Says Surtax Could Be Dropped If War Cools Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford believes that with good fiscal management Richard M. Nixon will be able to let the 10 per cent income surtax expire next June if the Vietnam war continues at its present pace.

The Michigan congressman cautioned that if there is an increased tempo in the war and inflation is not under control, Congress might have to take a different attitude.

But, he added in an interview, "I will not vote for continuing the surtax just to expand federal spending."

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, has said he sees little possibility for letting the surtax expire. In his view the only hope for tax relief is to impose stringent economies on government spending. Ford's view is somewhat at variance with that of Wisconsin's John W. Byrnes, top Republican on the Ways and Means Committee, who has said that if there is no change in the Vietnam war during the next few months Congress will have to continue the surtax.

At the same time, Byrnes said that if the shooting aspect of the war is pretty well resolved by January or February, it would be possible to eliminate the surtax or to make changes such as reducing it by 5 per cent.

Ford said he is reasonably optimistic about the chances of passage of Nixon's legislative program.

"The Democratic leadership has pledged to cooperate," Ford said. "If they do, the prospects are pretty good."

NATO Beefs Up Strength As Soviet Threat Remains

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Officials say Soviet strength in Czechoslovakia has dwindled to three divisions, but NATO strategists are busy implementing lessons learned from the August invasion.

Reduction of the Soviet forces followed an agreement between Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union in October, legalizing an indefinite Russian presence in the satellite.

The Red troops that once ranged throughout the strategic central European country are now based mainly in Bratislava and Prague, U.S. analysts say.

Particularly alarming to Western allies at the time of the invasion was the presence of six invasion divisions a short march from the West German frontier. Despite withdrawal of the main strength, Russian concentrations in East Germany and Poland remain significant. The Soviets have maintained a formidable 20 divisions in East Germany in the past and some of the troops withdrawn from Czechoslovakia have joined them.

Although the immediate threat to Western Europe's heartland has eased, North Atlantic Treaty Organization is beefing up defenses and keeping a closer watch on Soviet military activity along other European borders.

Yugoslavia Said Strong Enough To Defend Self

JAJOE, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Tito said today Yugoslavia is strong enough to defend its sovereignty and independence alone.

But he added he saw no reason why the Soviet Union should attack Yugoslavia, a reference to Soviet-Yugoslav tension since the invasion of Czechoslovakia.

Tito told a news conference of 200 foreign and Yugoslav newsmen. "It would be desirable not to dramatize the present situation. Relaxation should be endeavored."

He also said Yugoslavia does not ask for any protection from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, adding, "I think everywhere in the world everybody knows that we did not call anybody to help us."

Questioned about a statement by U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk in Brussels that Yugoslavia is part of the "Grey Zone" of NATO protection, Tito said: "Our attitude stands apart from his appraisal. We do not recognize spheres of interest. These stop at our borders. Here is a bright zone and we have no reason to fear."

Jersey City Police Station Hit By Shots

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Police say 20 shots were fired from a speeding car at Fifth Precinct police station shortly before midnight Friday, two days after seven Black Panthers were arrested.

Police Chief Stephen T. Nestor said, "I assume it was Black Panthers."

One of the bullets passed through the hat of Sgt. Edward Quirk, who was outside the precinct station. He was unharmed.

The seven members of the Black Panthers, a militant Negro group that has formed in several of the nation's cities, were arrested Wednesday about one mile from the Fifth Precinct headquarters on charges of carrying concealed weapons. Each was held in $10,000 bail.

Six of them were being held in Jersey City police headquarters and the seventh, a woman, had been transferred to a jail in nearby Secaucus.

The station is in a predominantly white neighborhood one block from the edge of a Negro slum.

"We don't think it was anyone from around here," Nestor said. "We don't think anyone who lives around here would do something like this."

Nestor said police were looking for a 1962, light-colored car. He said the car was headed toward the New Jersey Turnpike after the attack and police were not certain whether it bore New Jersey license plates.

The bullets were fired from an automatic, the chief said. The shots struck the station house, breaking a few windows. Six policemen inside ducked when the shots were fired and did not shoot back, he said.

Nestor said there may have been either two or four men in the car and all were believed to be Negroes.

Colombians Face Political Crisis Again

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — President Carlos Lleras caused Colombia's present political crisis in a desperate attempt to save his program of political and economic reforms, informed sources said today.

Lleras, a Liberal, forced the resignation of the 13-man Liberal-Conservative coalition Cabinet Friday after his congressional reform bill was defeated by the Conservatives in Congress.

It was similar to a move he made in June when he suddenly offered to resign after the Senate had rejected a similar plan, but then the opposition came from members of Lleras' own Liberal party.

According to the sources, the Conservative opposition to the reform bill provided Lleras with an issue he had been seeking to force a crisis.

It gives him a chance to look for a new political alignment and determine whether members of the coalition can play a double role—opposing his reforms while holding key government posts.

Lleras is reported angry and tired at having to beg Congress to approve his reforms and then seeing his efforts thwarted by a lack of a coalition discipline when the vote comes.

Hong Kong Flu Flares In U.S.

Shriners Bring Germ Back Home

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Hong Kong flu has flared in Colorado, southern Arizona, North Carolina, Philadelphia, Pa., and Puerto Rico, the National Communicable Disease Center reports.

The center said Friday that tourists just back from Hawaii, including a group of 155 Shriners, are believed to have imported the germs into North Carolina.

Dr. J. N. MacCormack, North Carolina's assistant health director, said about 85 of the Shriners who visited Honolulu in October were stricken and blood tests showed they had Hong Kong flu.

The mining town of Bisbee, Ariz., reported an outbreak of the virus, and officials said school absenteeism was running at 60 per cent. However, the center said this outbreak was mild.

Flu has hit the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, sending nearly 2,000 of the 3,400 cadets to the infirmary for treatment. However, less than 1 per cent of the stricken required hospitalization and officials said the outbreak is "definitely on the wane."

An Air Force base in Colorado Springs and Army officials at Ft. Carson, Colo., also reported illnesses from the virus. The number of flu cases at Ft. Carson has dropped, with about 30 of every 1,000 soldiers reported ill now. Earlier, the rate was double that among the post's 12,000 personnel.

Police Return In Newark, N.J.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Police and firemen reported back to work today in full strength in compliance with a court order barring their sick-call strike for higher salaries.

A spokesman for the police department said that a full complement of 140 policemen were on duty today and all 180 firemen on the early shift were back at work.

Men began returning to duty Friday night after Superior Court Judge James Guiliano issued a temporary injunction against the strike which started with the Friday morning shift.

MEETING RUDOLPH — Like all children, Cindy Poling, Little Miss Pumpkin Show, was delighted when Santa introduced her to his famous red-nosed reindeer, Rudolph. Santa, who arrived Friday afternoon, will remain in Circleville until Dec. 23, when he will return to the North Pole to prepare for his annual visit.

Medicaid May Be Big Issue With Cost-Cutting Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Medicaid program of health care for the poor—its costs soaring—may provide one of the major battles in the next congress and an early test of Nixon campaign pledges to hold down federal spending.

Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Senate Finance Committee which has jurisdiction over Medicaid, has pledged that "bringing the cost of this fantastic program into bounds" will be one of his major 1969 objectives.

John J. Williams, of Delaware, senior Republican on the panel supports him.

"This is a program now costing us about 10 times the original estimate, he says.

But Republican Jacob K. Javits of New York, whose state has the biggest single Medicaid program, promises a fight to keep present federal aid formulas.

The government's share of the three-year-old program now is estimated for the current fiscal year at $2.6 billion, $1 billion more than forecast a year ago.

President-elect Richard M. Nixon, during his campaign, criticized many welfare programs enacted under Democrats in the past few years and made limits on federal spending a major campaign pledge.

He's had little to say on Medicaid itself. But he has indicated he favors more state control of welfare programs and governors generally have favored Medicaid.

Long tipped off what he had in mind in the closing days of the 90th Congress by winning surprise 44-25 Senate approval of a $500 million slash in the federal share of Medicaid.

The amendment, tacked onto a minor tax bill, eventually was shelved because of what Long called a successful filibuster against it.

Henry Kissinger Favored To Be Nixon Defense Aide

NEW YORK (AP) — Three meetings in five days between President-elect Richard M. Nixon and Henry Kissinger have prompted speculation Kissinger may become Nixon's personal adviser on national security matters.

Kissinger had another meeting Friday with the President-elect. Ron Ziegler, Nixon's press spokesman, later described Kissinger as "a man well respected in the field of foreign affairs and national security." Kissinger, 45, is director of Harvard University's defense studies program and head of the Harvard International Seminar.

There has been no word from the Nixon camp so far as to whether the President-elect even plans to have a special assistant for national security affairs—a top post occupied during the past eight years by McGeorge Bundy and Walt W. Rostow.

It is widely believed, however, that the new chief executive will almost have to have a close, personal adviser in this area, even if he changes the job's title.

Kissinger has a broad range of experience in international relations and is considered a specialist on such subjects as European security, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Mediterranean.

He was born in Germany and became a naturalized citizen in 1943. He was a consultant to the National Security Council in 1961 and 1962, and has been a consultant to the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency since 1961.

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Donald C. McCullough of Hagerstown submitted an itemized list Friday showing how he spent $416.45 in his unsuccessful campaign for county commissioner. It included: $3.84 for "three large-size bottles of aspirin." $12.60 for 125 cups of coffee consumed by persons "while I endeavored to convince them to vote for me." $2.75 for "repair of the seats of three pairs of pants torn while climbing barbed wire fences to shake hands with farmers."

Air Samples Show No Life Could Exist

MANNINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Officials of the Consolidation Coal Co. said the hazardous job of sealing No. 9 mine, where 78 men have been trapped for more than a week, was completed early today.

There were no incidents but the company warned of a danger of still more explosions, which have rocked the sprawling mine periodically.

The completion of sealing of the mine, owned by Consolidation subsidiary Mountaineer Coal Co., came after Consolidation President John Corcoran announced the decision Friday night.

The Mod's Run shaft in the mine had been filled earlier with crushed limestone and the main slope was boarded with heavy timbers and sealed with plastic.

Company officials appeared cautiously optimistic that the seals would control the fire, which began early Nov. 20 when a thundering explosion roared through No. 9, trapped the 78 men.

Twenty-one other miners escaped the inferno.

"The cumulative evidence shows without question," Corcoran told a news conference Friday night, "that human life is not possible where the men would be located."

The sealing process, which began as Corcoran talked to newsmen, covers all of the mine's openings and shuts off air flow. This move extinguishes the fire but also stops oxygen flowing to the men and means sure death if any are still alive.

Before the meeting with newsmen, Corcoran went to the James Fork United Methodist Church where relatives of the missing men had gathered.

"It was terribly difficult for them to accept the fact that all hope is gone," he said, "but being the kind of people they are, they have accepted that fact."

One observer at the small, red brick church said, "The minister couldn't finish the prayer because of the crying in the church."

Those who have worked and lived around No. 9 are accustomed to tragedy. It was sealed 14 years ago after an explosion, with the loss of 16 lives. It was not opened until five months after the sealing.

One of those who was lucky enough to escape was Matt Menas, whose father died in the 1954 explosion.

Some went about the task of honoring their dead. Mrs. Henry Skarzynski requested a Requiem Mass Monday at one of the area's Roman Catholic churches.

Skarzynski was just 90 minutes away from retirement and working his last shift when he was trapped. His wife received his retirement papers the morning of the explosion.

Dennis Toler left a 24-year-old wife who is expecting a baby momentarily and is hospitalized with a respiratory condition. She spent days at the coal mine's entrance and refused to leave until she had word of her husband.

Afro-American Police League Organized

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The 24 Negro members of the nearly 700-man police department here Friday and organized the Afro-American Patrolmen's League. The organization's leader, Det. William Mosley, said his group seeks to have all-Negro police crews enforcing the law in the city's ghetto area.

Mosley said his group will be independent of the Fraternal Order of Police and the Toledo Benevolent Police Association.

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato today named a new Cabinet which political observers said reflects his pledge to "get things done."

Despite Charges, Paris Talks To Continue

PARIS (AP) — Hanoi and the United States each have a long list of accusations alleging violations of the bombing halt agreement, but there was no sign today they will try to collapse the expanded peace talks.

Observers say the charges and countercharges are just another way of keeping the other side's feet in the fire.

As it is, the parity expected to start in two weeks will be difficult enough. Hanoi and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front are refusing to recognize the Saigon delegation, and South Vietnam says it will talk only to Hanoi.

A Hanoi spokesman Friday made the most serious bombing accusation yet by the North Vietnamese.

He said U.S. planes hit North Vietnamese territory three straight days, the latest attack coming Nov. 27.

Three U.S. F4 jets bombed five villages more than 40 miles north of the 17th parallel dividing the two Vietnams, he claimed, adding that they were not involved in any pilot rescue or defense.

Previously the North Vietnamese had protested to the U.S. delegation about what they said were U.S. bombing raids over their territory Nov. 25 and 26.

A Washington spokesman said he did not know of any such attacks. The United States has explained the earlier incidents as "suppressive fire" to protect pilots of reconnaissance planes.

The United States claims President Johnson's Oct. 31 directive to stop the "bombardment and all other acts involving the use of force" on North Vietnamese territory did not rule out continuing reconnaissance flights.

Washington said, continuing U.S. surveillance of enemy territory is necessary and defense of the reconnaissance craft is justified, including bombing if necessary to help a helicopter rescue a downed pilot.

North Vietnam claims its gunners have shot down at least eight U.S. planes since Nov. 1. Johnson's bomb-halt package, which paved the way for the expanded talks, also listed respect for the demilitarized zone and a hold-down on shelling of South Vietnamese cities as requirements for progress in the talks.

The U.S. Command in Saigon says more than 200 enemy actions have been found in the DMZ since Nov. 1, including more than two dozen termed "significant."

Chief U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman is flying home Sunday to preside over a Human Rights Commission meeting in Washington. While there he is expected to confer with high officials about the Paris meeting.

It is not known whether he will see Johnson or President-elect Richard M. Nixon. Harriman expects to return to France Thursday or Friday.

South Vietnamese envoy Pham Dang Lam is due in Paris Sunday as the vanguard of a full South Vietnamese delegation to the peace talks.

Air Samples Show No Life Could Exist

MANNINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Officials of the Consolidation Coal Co. said the hazardous job of sealing No. 9 mine, where 78 men have been trapped for more than a week, was completed early today.

There were no incidents but the company warned of a danger of still more explosions, which have rocked the sprawling mine periodically.

The completion of sealing of the mine, owned by Consolidation subsidiary Mountaineer Coal Co., came after Consolidation President John Corcoran announced the decision Friday night.

The Mod's Run shaft in the mine had been filled earlier with crushed limestone. The Atha's portal and Mahan Run shaft were sealed with massive fabricated steel and concrete caps.

The main mine entrance, the Llewellyn portal, was filled with crushed limestone and the main slope was boarded with heavy timbers and sealed with plastic.

Company officials appeared cautiously optimistic that the seals would control the fire, which began early Nov. 20 when a thundering explosion roared through No. 9, trapped the 78 men.

Twenty-one other miners escaped the inferno.

"The cumulative evidence shows without question," Corcoran told a news conference Friday night, "that human life is not possible where the men would be located."

The sealing process, which began as Corcoran talked to newsmen, covers all of the mine's openings and shuts off air flow. This move extinguishes the fire but also stops oxygen flowing to the men and means sure death if any are still alive.

Before the meeting with newsmen, Corcoran went to the James Fork United Methodist Church where relatives of the missing men had gathered.

"It was terribly difficult for them to accept the fact that all hope is gone," he said, "but being the kind of people they are, they have accepted that fact."

One observer at the small, red brick church said, "The minister couldn't finish the prayer because of the crying in the church."

Those who have worked and lived around No. 9 are accustomed to tragedy. It was sealed 14 years ago after an explosion, with the loss of 16 lives. It was not opened until five months after the sealing.

One of those who was lucky enough to escape was Matt Menas, whose father died in the 1954 explosion.

Some went about the task of honoring their dead. Mrs. Henry Skarzynski requested a Requiem Mass Monday at one of the area's Roman Catholic churches.

Skarzynski was just 90 minutes away from retirement and working his last shift when he was trapped. His wife received his retirement papers the morning of the explosion.

Dennis Toler left a 24-year-old wife who is expecting a baby momentarily and is hospitalized with a respiratory condition. She spent days at the coal mine's entrance and refused to leave until she had word of her husband.

Afro-American Police League Organized
TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The 24 Negro members of the nearly 700-man police department here Friday and organized the Afro-American Patrolmen's League.

The organization's leader, Det. William Mosley, said his group seeks to have all-Negro police crews enforcing the law in the city's ghetto area.

Mosley said his group will be independent of the Fraternal Order of Police and the Toledo Benevolent Police Association.

It's not news that the number and use of convenience foods is increasing. But it is news to learn just how fast these products are growing in importance in our food budget, says Mary Catherine Mitchell, Extension Nutritionist, The Ohio State University.

In 1965, the United States Department of Agriculture did a nationwide survey of household use of 32 convenience foods. The study which compared the use and price of the items to 1955 figures, included households at all levels of income.

The study revealed that low income households increased their use of these convenience items by 47 percent. That was considerably higher than the 28 percent increase reported by high income households. The average increase for all households was about 34 percent.

The average amount spent per week for convenience foods jumped from about $6.15 in 1955 to $8.13 in 1965. The items showing the biggest use gain was commercial fruit juice which showed a 300 percent increase. Powdered fruit ades and punches registered a 200 percent increase, despite a cost rise of 900 percent.

Other big gainers - in the 100 percent or more category - were dehydrated soups and instant coffee. The use of instant coffee rose by 125 percent, while the price rose only 33 percent.

percent. Canned, condensed soups showed only a 30 percent gain in use. Ready-to-eat cereals also showed a use gain of 30 percent but the price rose 90 percent.

Farm Animals Can Glean Fields

Corn left in the field after harvesting can be used to make more pork, beef, and lamb. Feeder animals can pick up corn lost in the field and convert it into meat for market.

Feeder animals will utilize lost corn fairly well if the ground is reasonably dry, and if they clean up one area before moving to another area. To prevent rough packed soil, avoid turning animals on wet areas.

Full use of your corn crop can begin by using federal animals to glean the field.

SOMETHING TO WHOOP ABOUT—The world's population of whooping cranes has increased to 49, with the possibility more will come, the Interior Department's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife reported in Washington. The count was made by an aerial survey of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge (above) in Texas, where the once nearly-extinct birds spend the winter. The 49 include six young whoopers.

Debbie is also an experienced swine showman, having shown hogs as a 4-H club project for 6 years. She will compete in the State Pork Queen Contest to be held as a part of the Ohio Pork Producers Council annual meeting at the Ohio State University on December 10.

Hood Ornament Injury Lawsuit Settlement Made

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The parents of a Beachwood boy who suffered brain damage in a 1962 accident Friday accepted a $42,500 settlement from the Chrysler Corp., the city of Beachwood and a Cleveland man.

The three defendants agreed in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court Judge John M. Manos' chambers to split the damages filed on behalf of Jonathan Jaros, who was five at the time of the accident.

Jonathan was struck by a car driven by Harry L. Rhodes of Cleveland. A hood ornament on the 1956 Dodge manufactured by Chrysler pierced the boy's skull, injuring his brain.

The suit also contended refuse collectors of the city of Beachwood had pushed the boy into the path of Rhodes' car.

SOMETHING TO WHOOP ABOUT—The world's population of whooping cranes has increased to 49, with the possibility more will come, the Interior Department's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife reported in Washington. The count was made by an aerial survey of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge (above) in Texas, where the once nearly-extinct birds spend the winter. The 49 include six young whoopers.

At Annual Fall Sports Banquet

By TONY LIGHTLE
Westfall's fall sports banquet was held Nov. 14. The high school and junior high football teams, cross-country team and the cheerleaders were honored.

BACK OF YEAR — John Furniss, Scioto Valley Conference back of the year, was honored with fellow team members at the recent Westfall sports banquet.

Speaker for the evening was Gene Slaughter, head football coach at Capital University and former Ohio State backfield coach. In his speech, Mr. Slaughter emphasized desire as the key to success in athletics and life.

After Mr. Slaughter finished his speech the awards presentations took place.

Mustangs' head football coach presented John Furniss with the most valuable player award. Coach Katterhenrich, the Scioto Valley Conference coach of the year, also honored the players who made all-league.

Westfall placed seven boys on the all-league team with two honorable mentions. On the first team offense the Mustangs had right end, Tony Lightle, right tackle Tim Dewey, left guard Bruce Sykes, and halfback John Furniss, who also received the SVC Back of the Year award.

On the defensive team the Mustangs placed Tony Lightle at defensive end, Jack Moore at defensive end and Gene Carfrey at outside line-backer.

Rick Redman, the Mustangs' offensive center and Don Greenwood, the Mustangs' middle guard, received honorable mention.

Also present was Mr. Leist who presented awards to John Furniss, offensive back, Tony Lightle, offensive lineman, Don Greenwood, defensive lineman and Bruce Sykes — defensive back.

This year's team finished with a 7-1-1 record. The offense averaged over 500 yards per game, while the defense held the opponents to an average of less than 200 yards per game.

In nine games the Mustangs scored 405 points for an average of 45 points a game and held their opponents to 107 points, for an average of 14.5 points per game. The team finished first in the Scioto Valley Conference and was rated 19th in the final AP polls.

After the football presentations, Mr. Tracy, the cross-country coach, passed out cross-country letters. Mr. Tracy gave special recognition to Jim Lett and Bob Oesterle, who both qualified for the state cross-country meet.

Art Club Formed, Officers Elected

By NANCY RUOFF

The first meeting of the WHS Art Club began with a boom!

The officers for 1968-69 are Harry Hastings, president; Linda Keller, vice president; Pat Napper, secretary-treasurer; Shirley Van Hoose, news reporter; and Nancy Ruoff and Becky Gantz, publicity. The advisor this year is the same as last year, Miss Ruth Montelius.

Art Club is now underway with a new project to assist in brightening the halls of Westfall. Each week a series of art pictures, created by members of the club, are hung throughout the halls and in study hall. Those members who wish to display their works of art should contact Linda Keller.

Many new committees have been organized with the Art Club, along with several new programs. One new program is the clipping file. This is a collection of various pictures that are used by students to refer to for drawings and decorations of different types. Shirley Van Hoose and Sherry Covault are in charge of this project and members are urged to add as many different pictures as possible.

Another new program which has been appointed and set up is the decorations committee. This committee is responsible for decorating the halls and rooms of Westfall for special occasions such as Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter.

Each year the Art Club sponsors at least two art shows. Judges are brought in, winners chosen, and prizes awarded. The prizes consist of money.

The Mustangs' next basketball game will be Nov. 29, at Circleville. The reserve game will start at 7 p.m. and the varsity game at 8 p.m. This should be a good game, so everyone be sure to come. The game will be played in the Mill St. gym.

The Student Council held a sock-hop Nov. 14. The featured band was the Clear Flame. The dance, which was held in the cafeteria, was one of the council's money-raising projects.

The students at Westfall have had another obstacle thrown into the path of education: wheelchairs. There are presently two wheelchairs at Westfall, operated by Richard Riddle and Scott Van Horn. These wheelchairs are always at large, and are particularly to be noted for their high rate of speed. (Richard has a broken leg and Scott a sprained ankle).

Westfall beanies and basketball buttons will be on sale at all the home games. The beanies are red and gray felt, and are being sold by the student council, and the basketball buttons consist of a basketball with scarlet and gray ribbons attached. The basketball buttons are being sold by the FNA.

Empty Pockets

Male styles these days are, if anything, tight. That is, they fit tight, the price isn't. Look at a sartorially resplendent male today and you can tell if he has a dime in his pocket, and almost whether it is a silver or clad one.

Some suitmakers still put pockets in their products, but they don't expect you to use them. Spoils the drape. Time was when a man had lots of pockets. And filled them.

Men's pockets today contain the rock-bottom necessities. Things like change, a wallet, handkerchief, keys and maybe a cigarette lighter.

That wouldn't have filled one pocket in the days when a man was expected to produce on a moment's notice string, screws, nuts and bolts, candy mints for the kiddies, maybe a snack for the family pet, paper clips, safety pins, a comb, spare shirt buttons and — by all means — a pocket knife.

Not to mention such other necessities as a pipe, tobacco, spare matches and a dollar pocket watch.

There was something reassuring about pockets in those days. A man might not often need the things he had in them, but who buys insurance in anticipation he will need it?

Some evidence that men may be rebelling against the flat look is provided by designers who seriously offer handbags for the well-dressed male.

That'll be the day!

Shun The Chiseler

'Tis the season to be jolly, and one of the jolliest persons around is the chiseler out to make a fast buck. He operates best when people are happy and stores crowded. Many are his ploys.

He may open a store front for a month or so around Christmas to sell shoddy merchandise at top prices. His specialty may be mail order sales of non-existent or inferior products.

One of his favorite tactics is to sell cheap perfume in expensive-looking bottles. He may use the telephone to solicit contributions to a worthy charity — himself.

He may be glib, well-dressed and charming. He relies on the rush of Christmas shopping and the relaxing of buyers' guards at this time of year to guarantee the holidays are indeed a most prosperous time of year.

Frankenheimer

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "There is a saying that the Hungarian government grants only three-day visas to visit the country because the country has only three dishes to eat."

This was the jest of John Frankenheimer, who spent seven months in Hungary to film "The Fixer." During that time he consumed an unconscionable amount of goulash, but he enjoyed the movie-making experience.

"If the situation were right, I would go back there and make another picture," said the towering, boyish-looking director. "I found the Hungarian people to be extremely friendly, and the film workers were eager and helpful. We received excellent cooperation all along the line."

Frankenheimer and his partner, producer Edward Lewis, were sold on "The Fixer" as soon as they had read the Bernard Malamud novel in galley form. They had previously tried to transfer another Malamud book, "The Assistant," into the film medium, but were unable to acquire financing. It was no easy matter with "The Fixer," either.

"After I finished 'Grand Prix,' Eddie and I proposed

"The Fixer" to MGM; we were turned down," said Frankenheimer. "But then the president of MGM, Robert O'Brien, read the book and was sold on it. He said MGM would back the project if we could make it 'for a price.'"

Lewis and Frankenheimer agreed to do so, and they began searching for topography and cityscapes that would resemble 1916 Russia. They wanted to film inside Russia itself, but they were told "via the grapevine" that such a request would be denied. The reason: The Fixer deals with anti-Semitism, which reportedly still exists in Russia.

"We figured if we got a turn-down from Russia, that would scare off any of the satellite countries," said the director.

"After looking at Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Hungary, as well as Yugoslavia and Austria, we decided that Hungary offered the best backgrounds. The deal was arranged through the Tower International organization headed by Cyrus Eaton."

Frankenheimer spent 100 days of filming on the picture which stars Alan Bates, Dirk Bogarde and Elizabeth Hartman. "The Fixer" met O'Brien's stipulation "for a price." It was "something under two and a half million," a reasonable sum for a top production these days.

Most of Nation Clear And Dry

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Clear and dry weather favored much of the nation today as November drew to a close.

Snow flurries dusted scattered areas from the Great Lakes to New England, and light rain dampened portions of the Pacific Northwest and the Gulf Coast.

But the weather elsewhere was generally fair, with temperatures seasonally crisp in all but Florida and parts of the Southwest.

Severe cold was limited to the northern Great Lakes region and the northern Rockies. Saulte St. Marie, Mich., and Lander, Wyo., chilled down to 10 above zero before dawn.

Try and Stop Me

A SLICK CORPORATION lawyer had been trying to impress a backwoods jury by throwing around the names of a score of V.I.P.'s his client allegedly palled around with.

When his opponent arose to sum up, however, he scored heavily by reminding the jury, "Never make the mistake of judging a man by the company he keeps. Remember that Judas Iscariot traveled with the very best people!"

A bit of Russian history — as revised by Rowan and Martin. In 1703, the Moscow populace welcomed back from their honeymoon the Czar and his Czarina.

Both of them refused to discuss their honeymoon, but note was taken of the fact that he called her Catherine the Great but she called him Ivan the Terrible.

Rowan also joined in the throng that wouldn't touch a certain filthy novel with a ten-foot pole. Martin added that Stanislaus Mazerosky, a ten-foot Pole, wouldn't touch it either.

They're singing the praises of a certain surgeon in London. Claims he's performed over 400 major operations and is yet to cut himself once.

Nipsy Russell is back from Las Vegas with the inside scoop that the banks there, instead of paying Howard Hughes interest, are now charging him storage.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Deficiency of protein, one of the most important nutrients needed by the body, occurs in millions of children all around the world in this so-called enlightened age. It is difficult for me to give this next bit of statistics without question. Yet, I am assured by nutritionists that more than 75 per cent of children, adolescents and adults go to bed each night of their lives with unrelieved pangs of hunger. This is indeed a sad testimonial to a world ostensibly filled with so much scientific hope in privileged areas.

Dr. Lauren Donaldson at the University of Washington in Seattle has definitely shown that starvation deaths, even in a world threatened by a population explosion, need not exist. The fish food concentrate that he has created can easily keep every human being in underprivileged countries alive and thriving, with hope for their rightful longevity.

A recent congress on nutrition hopefully presented scientific data that protein can be produced from fish flour, plants, and plant leaf concentrates. They emphasize, too, that today's urgent need for food can be expected to double in the next twenty years.

The scientists have produced the food, but the social scientists have not kept pace in creating methods to bring it to those who are simply and frankly dying of starvation.

The accomplishments of modern medicine read like fairy tales created in imaginary dreams of philosophers. Heart surgery, kidney, liver, spleen transplants, antibiotics and hormones are true testimonials to the ingenuity of man. Prenatal care now keeps alive children who might have been destined to die at birth. As a physician who looks back at many years of practice and with pride recalls the number of cases of cancer of the larynx that are still alive, I personally resent any unnecessary death, especially death due to starvation.

I cannot in any way reconcile today's accomplishments with the fact that international intrigue allows hundreds of thousands of children in Biafra, in India and in Indonesia to die the deaths of neglect and starvation. I have often wondered how many Mozarts, how many

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the ordeals of life is the problem of getting rid of the remains of a turkey you win in the annual office Thanksgiving raffle.

For some reason unknown to man the prizes in these affairs are never reasonable-sized birds — say 10 to 12-pounders.

No, indeed. They all suffer from gigantism, one of the curses of a myopic civilization which tends mistakenly to equate mere bulk with true quality. They weigh from 20 pounds on up, and are built like hulking feathered apes.

A man ceases to be a hero in his wife's eyes any day he lugs home a vast rubbery turkey he has won at the office. As he opens the door, full of pride but faint with exhaustion, she takes one look at the turkey slung over his bent back and yelps: "What do you expect me to do with that—cook it or preserve it for the Smithsonian Institution?"

"Now what are you hollering about?" he says. "aren't you glad I won us a free Thanksgiving dinner?"

Free? Getting a supposedly free turkey at Thanksgiving is like being given a sacred white elephant in Thailand. The initial cost is nothing. But the upkeep is everything.

By the time you surround the turkey with proper fixings and buy liquor and white wine for the free-loading friends you invite to share your bounty, it is necessary to take out a second mortgage on your home to foot the bill.

The next morning when you take a bleary look at the turkey it hardly seems dented. How can you get rid of it?

There are 1,012 recipes for serving leftover turkey, but what stomach can face turkey, in any of its disguises, for 1,012 consecutive days?

You can't feed it to the cat.

There are 1,012 recipes for serving leftover turkey, but what stomach can face turkey, in any of its disguises, for 1,012 consecutive days?

You can't feed it to the cat, because the cat couldn't consume it in all her nine lifetimes. You can't give it to a poor relative, because no relative is so poor that he will accept a hand-me-down turkey.

You can't bundle it up and send it to Britain, because the British are still angry at us for paining off on them all the mountains of powdered eggs we had left after World War II.

Of course, you could dig a hole in the back yard big enough to bury it in, but a hole that large would take three days of steady digging.

The best way, however, to get rid of a leftover turkey is to avoid having it in the first place. When they announce at the office you have won a turkey, you say:

"No, thank you. Tear up my ticket. I almost lost my happy home once by bringing home an office Thanksgiving turkey. Never again!"

Frankenheimer

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "There is a saying that the Hungarian government grants only three-day visas to visit the country because the country has only three dishes to eat."

This was the jest of John Frankenheimer, who spent seven months in Hungary to film "The Fixer." During that time he consumed an unconscionable amount of goulash, but he enjoyed the movie-making experience.

"If the situation were right, I would go back there and make another picture," said the towering, boyish-looking director. "I found the Hungarian people to be extremely friendly, and the film workers were eager and helpful. We received excellent cooperation all along the line."

Frankenheimer and his partner, producer Edward Lewis, were sold on "The Fixer" as soon as they had read the Bernard Malamud novel in galley form. They had previously tried to transfer another Malamud book, "The Assistant," into the film medium, but were unable to acquire financing. It was no easy matter with "The Fixer," either.

"After I finished 'Grand Prix,' Eddie and I proposed

"The Fixer" to MGM; we were turned down," said Frankenheimer. "But then the president of MGM, Robert O'Brien, read the book and was sold on it. He said MGM would back the project if we could make it 'for a price.'"

Lewis and Frankenheimer agreed to do so, and they began searching for topography and cityscapes that would resemble 1916 Russia. They went to film inside Russia itself, but they were told "via the grapevine" that such a request would be denied. The reason: "The Fixer" deals with anti-Semitism, which reportedly still exists in Russia.

"We figured if we got a turn-down from Russia, that would scare off any of the satellite countries," said the director.

"After looking at Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Hungary, as well as Yugoslavia and Austria, we decided that Hungary offered the best backgrounds. The deal was arranged through the Tower international organization headed by Cyrus Eaton."

School Lunch Guidelines Announced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's school lunch program is being extended to children from families who are not on welfare but are at comparable income levels.

New guidelines announced Friday by the Ohio Department of Education provide for the first time an income scale for families not on public assistance.

The guidelines, designed to further develop policies for serving free or reduced-cost meals to needy children, give each local board of education and its administrative officers the responsibility for determining who is eligible to participate in the program.

The department recommends that welfare agencies be consulted for information on families participating in local welfare programs.

For families not on public assistance, the guidelines include an income scale suggesting that a rural income of $255 could qualify for free or reduced cost lunches or breakfasts.

Because of the higher cost of living, an urban family of three could earn a maximum of $275 and qualify.

An increment of $35 maximum income for each additional child was suggested up to maximums of $500 and $520, respectively, for rural and urban families.

Republic blamed increased costs of supplies and labor for the move.

U. S. Steel Corp. announced Wednesday it plans to wipe out the $25 a ton price decrease on hot rolled sheets.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren Late Baby May Enrich Marriage

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 21 years to a wonderful man. I am 44 and he is 45. We have 3 children—13, 16, and 18. I have always worked to help with "extras" and to assure the children of a college education—then I discovered I was pregnant! I was just sick about it, so our happy homelife ended. I haven't spoken to my husband in 6 months, except when I absolutely have to for the sake of the children. The baby is due in 2 months.

I love my husband very much, but I don't like what he did to me at my age. And what am I going to do with a BABY?

I cry every day. My family was all planned—and now this! Am I wrong for feeling and acting as I do?

HEARTSICK
DEAR HEARTSICK: Yes. Regardless of how you feel now, the baby could enrich your lives beyond belief. (I've heard from other mothers who also received late dividends and they reaffirm this fact.)

Ask your husband to forgive you. And by the way, this was as much your doing as his, you know. (P.S. For further consolation, Freud said, "There are no accidents.")

DEAR ABBY: I have a dear friend who insists on bringing something to my home whenever I invite her to dinner. Abby, she is a darling person, but she's possibly the world's worst cook!

When she brings something I have to serve it, don't I? The last time she brought a cake. It was underdone and lumpy with a blue (!) frosting which looked terrible and tasted worse.

I was embarrassed watching the faces of my other guests as they tried to eat it.

She's coming again on Sunday, and I told her NOT to bring anything. I've told her that before, but she always "surprises" me with something. My husband says I am an idiot for serving her failures, so I am writing to you for your opinion.

HELPLESS
DEAR HELPLESS: Your husband is right. Call her and tell her that one of the joys of entertaining is in preparing everything yourself, so please don't bring anything!

And if she "surprises" you with something, surprise HER, and don't serve it.

DEAR ABBY: You are always printing letters from people who complain because they're too fat. They don't know how lucky they are. Fat people can always lose weight, but how about thin people who can't put on an ounce? Nobody will believe this, but I am living proof that it is harder to put on a pound than to take it off.

I am a 24-year-old girl and have been told I have a beautiful face. But that's where it stops. I am 5 feet 6 and weigh 101 pounds. My bones stick out all over. I've been to doctors and tried diets and exercises and everything known to gain weight, but I can't put on an ounce. I am not sickly, either; I'm healthy, but I'm underweight. Is there something new I can try

POOR ME
DEAR POOR: If you're healthy, you're wealthy. If you can't change the frame, upholster the clothes. Wear full skirts, tight wide belts, high necklines, and quit worrying about your weight.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NO LONGER DISGUSTED": Just because your "system" always works, doesn't necessarily mean it's "good". I feel sorry for a service man whose mother writes to his commanding officer if she doesn't get a letter from her son every week.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Late Baby May Enrich Marriage

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 21 years to a wonderful man. I am 44 and he is 45. We have 3 children—13, 16, and 18. I have always worked to help with "extras" and to assure the children of a college education—then I discovered I was pregnant! I was just sick about it, so our happy homelife ended. I haven't spoken to my husband in 6 months, except when I absolutely have to for the sake of the children. The baby is due in 2 months.

I love my husband very much, but I don't like what he did to me at my age. And what am I going to do with a BABY?

I cry every day. My family was all planned—and now this! Am I wrong for feeling and acting as I do?

HEARTSICK

DEAR HEARTSICK: Yes. Regardless of how you feel now, the baby could enrich your lives beyond belief. (I've heard from other mothers who also received late dividends and they reaffirm this fact.)

Ask your husband to forgive you. And by the way, this was as much your doing as his, you know. (P.S. For further consolation, Freud said, "There are no accidents.")

DEAR ABBY: I have a dear friend who insists on bringing something to my home whenever I invite her to dinner. Abby, she is a darling person, but she's possibly the world's worst cook!

When she brings something I have to serve it, don't I? The last time she brought a cake. It was underdone and lumpy with a blue (!) frosting which looked terrible and tasted worse.

I was embarrassed watching the faces of my other guests as they tried to eat it.

She's coming again on Sunday, and I told her NOT to bring anything. I've told her that before, but she always "surprises" me with something. My husband says I am an idiot for serving her failures, so I am writing to you for your opinion.

HELPLESS

DEAR HELPLESS: Your husband is right. Call her and tell her that one of the joys of entertaining is in preparing everything yourself, so please don't bring anything!

And if she "surprises" you with something, surprise HER, and don't serve it.

DEAR ABBY: You are always printing letters from people who complain because they're too fat. They don't know how lucky they are. Fat people can always lose weight, but how about thin people who can't put on an ounce? Nobody will believe this, but I am living proof that it is harder to put on a pound than to take it off.

Rhodes Appoints Tankersley Regent

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes announced today the appointment of George J. Tankersley of Shaker Heights, Cuyahoga County, to serve out the unexpired term of Richard R. Baker of Cleveland who resigned as a member of the Ohio Board of Regents.

"You Should See The Other Guy!"

As a boy it was so easy to justify a fight. Publicly you gloated over your opponent's bloody nose (and privately you wished that his had been the black eye with its more-lasting embarrassment). But, somehow, the victory alone excused the battle.

As an adult how do you view the matter? Would the possibility of bloody victory be sufficient justification for attempting to beat the tar out of some irritating neighbor? You might be arrested for disturbing the peace . . . assault and battery!

But that is not the real reason we control brutal impulses. The real reason lies deep in our Christian heritage: —a sense of human dignity . . . —respect for fairness and justice regardless of might . . . —the belief that peace can be a blessing for weak and strong alike . . . —that patient understanding can enrich life.

Rooted in the same Christian faith are other great principles of life which challenge men's hearts and minds. We seek to understand and apply them as we worship God in our churches. They are essential in a world still threatened with a return to the black eye and bloody nose . . . or something worse.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"You Should See The Other Guy!"

As a boy it was so easy to justify a fight. Publicly you gloated over your opponent's bloody nose (and privately you wished that his had been the black eye with its more-lasting embarrassment). But, somehow, the victory alone excused the battle.

As an adult how do you view the matter? Would the possibility of bloody victory be sufficient justification for attempting to beat the tar out of some irritating neighbor? You might be arrested for disturbing the peace . . . assault and battery!

But that is not the real reason we control brutal impulses. The real reason lies deep in our Christian heritage:
—a sense of human dignity . . .
—respect for fairness and justice regardless of might . . .
—the belief that peace can be a blessing for weak and strong alike . . .
—that patient understanding can enrich life.

Rooted in the same Christian faith are other great principles of life which challenge men's hearts and minds. We seek to understand and apply them as we worship God in our churches. They are essential in a world still threatened with a return to the black eye and bloody nose . . . or something worse.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mustangs Stampede CHS, 79-60

Bigam, Lightle Pace Victory

Westfall, with five players scoring in double figures, handed Circleville a 75-60 defeat Friday before a near capacity crowd in the Mill St. gymnasium.

Greg Bigam and Tony Lightle gave the visiting Mustangs a potent one-two scoring punch while the Mustang defense effectively stopped the Tigers' fast break.

Bigam was the game's leading scorer, connecting on seven of 17 shots from the field and hitting 11 of 13 at the charity stripe for 25 markers.

Lightle made eight of 15 field goal attempts and seven of nine foul shots for 23 points. Rounding out the Westfall scoring were Bill Blair with 11, Gene Carfrey with 10 and Bob Oesterle with 10.

ALL of Oesterle's points came in a relief role as he sparked the Mustangs in the fourth quarter. Bob Barnes, who was a starter, did not score.

For Circleville, Charlie Jackson canned nine of 23 field goal attempts and hit both of his chances from the free throw lane for 20 points.

Dave Horst scored 13 points and Mike Neal 10. Randy Halley, who was in foul trouble most of the game and finally fouled out shortly after the fourth quarter began, spent most of his time on the bench. He had only five points for the game.

Ty Ankrum scored six, Dave Hopkins three at the foul line, Randy Dresbach two and Phil Diehl one.

Neither team hit an impressive per centage of its shots. Westfall made 25 of 72 field goal attempts for a 34.7 per cent average.

Washington Wins Second Cage Tilt

Washington C. H. and Greenfield McClain were the only other SCOL teams besides the Tigers of Circleville to see action Friday night.

Court House won its second game of the season by defeating host Cedarville in a none league match, 63-48.

Steve Bowers was again high man for the Blue Lions with 11 buckets from the field and six from the charity stripe for a big 28 points. He was also high man for the game.

Cedarville took a five point lead at half time but found themselves behind by a slim two point margin at the end of the third quarter. Washington C. H. then poured on all the accuracy that they had by out scoring Cedarville 22-9 in the last quarter.

Greenfield met disaster at the hands of Upper Arlington in another non league showing, 66-36.

Ron Coleman led the losers with 15 points with five from the field and five from the free throw line.

Upper Arlington was paced by Eschilman with 20 points, half of which came from the charity stripe.

Greenfield was swamped by Upper Arlington right from the starting quarter. The closest they came was ten points at the end of the first quarter.

Cincy Bearcats Face South Dakota

CINCINNATI (AP)—The University of Cincinnati, one of the preseason favorites in the Missouri Valley Conference basketball race, opens the season here tonight against the South Dakota Coyotes and the Bearcats expect little trouble.

Coach Tay Baker has four veteran Bearcats returning including highly touted Rick Roberson 6-foot-9 forward. Other veterans are center Jim Ard and guards Gordon Smith and Don Ogletree. Sophomore Dick Hauke rounds out the lineup.

The scoreboard tally read 25-0 at halftime and the crowd began chanting: "We want 100!"

Houston's high-scoring Cougars had answered the same call less than a week earlier, but this time they hardly took notice. They couldn't afford to ... not when the next point they scored would be their first.

Florida State, triggered by the pitch-catch combination of Bill Cappelman and Ron Sellers, beat Houston to the draw Friday night and whipped the Nation's No. 1 offensive team 40-20 in a prelude to the final fling of the college football season.

The 10th-ranked Cougars, who riddled Tulsa 100-6 last Saturday night after pasting Idaho 77-3 the previous weekend, didn't get their attack off the ground against the Seminoles until Cappelman and Sellers had virtually locked up the game with a first-half aerial blitz.

Cappelman wound up hitting on 25 or 34 passes for 353 yards and four touchdowns while Sellers, the all-time leader in yardage on pass receptions, caught 14 for 214 yards and one score on a 62-yard bomb. The victory

Jarvis Ready To Scuttle Navy Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charles Jarvis is haunted by a fumble.

Jarvis is the Army fullback who has gained 1,022 yards and scored eight touchdowns this year. He'd trade each yard for the one that got away from him in the 1967 Army-Navy classic.

Navy led 19-14 before the sell-out crowd of 100,000 at John F. Kennedy Stadium. Army was driving with 4:53 remaining at the Middles' 25-yard line. Jarvis fumbled, Navy recovered and the Middles ran out the clock to preserve an upset.

Jarvis has a guilt complex. He feels he lost the game, that Army would have scored. Not even his accomplishment this season of breaking Glenn Davis' one-game rushing record can give Jarvis the sleep of a man at peace with the world. Charles is at war with Navy. Only a victory in today's 69th game between the two rivals can restore peace of mind.

Army is a two-touchdown favorite to make Jarvis happy. The Cadets have a 6-5 record against Navy's 2-7. Jarvis is one of the reasons for Army's record and its status as the favorite. He needs only 64 yards to shatter Davis' career record of 2,309 yards. The odds are he will make it against the rival which counts most to a West Point football player.

Alabama and Auburn tangled in another traditional season finale while fourth-ranked Georgia met Georgia Tech, No. 7 Tennessee took on Vanderbilt, Oklahoma played Oklahoma State, Baylor tackled Rice and Boston College met Holy Cross.

Two post-season attractions pairing top small college teams also were on schedule. Unbeaten Donae, Neb., played Central Missouri State in the Mineral Water Bowl at Excelsior Springs, Mo., and Texas A&I met unbeaten Northern State of South Dakota in an NAIA championship semifinal at Kingsville, Tex.

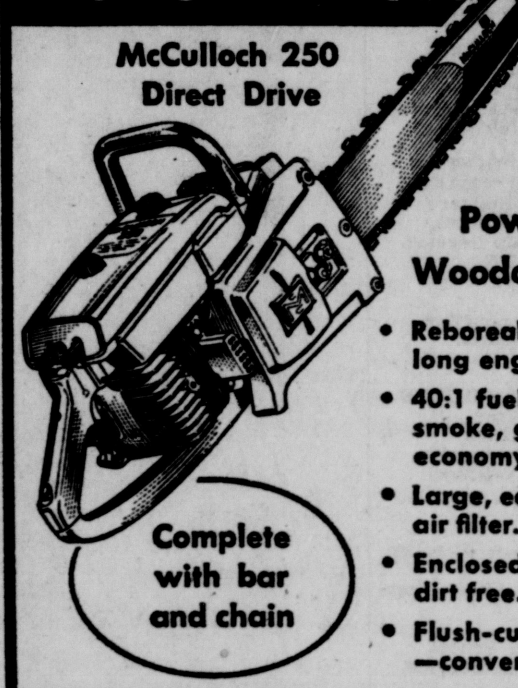

Arizona, gunning for the Western Athletic Conference crown, goes against arch rival Arizona State tonight at Tucson. In other night games, San Diego State, the nation's No. 2 small college team, closes against visiting Utah State and California completes an 11-game schedule at the University of Hawaii.

Mustangs Stampede CHS, 79-60

Bigam, Lightle Pace Victory

Westfall, with five players scoring in double figures, handed Circleville a 75-60 defeat Friday before a near capacity crowd in the Mill St. gymnasium.

Greg Bigam and Tony Lightle gave the visiting Mustangs a potent one-two scoring punch while the Mustang defense effectively stopped the Tigers' fast break.

Bigam was the game's leading scorer, connecting on seven of 17 shots from the field and hitting 11 of 13 at the charity stripe for 25 markers. Lightle made eight of 15 field goal attempts and seven of nine foul shots for 23 points. Rounding out the Westfall scoring were Bill Blair with 11, Gene Carrey with 10 and Bob Oesterle with 10.

ALL of Oesterle's points came in a relief role as he sparked the Mustangs in the fourth quarter. Bob Barnes, who was a starter, did not score.

For Circleville, Charlie Jackson canned nine of 23 field goal attempts and hit both of his chances from the free throw lane for 20 points.

Dave Horst scored 13 points and Mike Neal 10. Randy Halley, who was in foul trouble most of the game and finally fouled out shortly after the fourth quarter began, spent most of his time on the bench. He had only five points for the game.

Ty Ankrom scored six, Dave Hopkins three at the foul line, Randy Dresbach two and Phil Diehl one.

Neither team hit an impressive per centage of its shots. Westfall made 25 of 72 field goal attempts for a 34.7 per cent average.

Washington Wins Second Cage Tilt

Washington C. H. and Greenfield McClain were the only other SCOL teams besides the Tigers of Circleville to see action Friday night.

Court House won its second game of the season by defeating host Cedarville in a none league match, 63-48.

Steve Bowers was again high man for the Blue Lions with 11 buckets from the field and six from the charity stripe for a big 28 points. He was also high man for the game.

Cedarville took a five point lead at half time but found themselves behind by a slim two point margin at the end of the third quarter. Washington C. H. then poured on all the accuracy that they had by out scoring Cedarville 22-9 in the last quarter.

Greenfield met disaster at the hands of Upper Arlington in another non league showing, 66-36.

Ron Coleman led the losers with 15 points with five from the field and five from the free throw line.

Upper Arlington was paced by Eschilman with 20 points, half of which came from the charity stripe.

Greenfield was swamped by Upper Arlington right from the starting quarter. The closest they came was ten points at the end of the first quarter.

Cincy Bearcats Face South Dakota

CINCINNATI (AP)—The University of Cincinnati, one of the preseason favorites in the Missouri Valley Conference basketball race, opens the season here tonight against the South Dakota Coyotes and the Bearcats expect little trouble.

Coach Tay Baker has four veteran Bearcats returning including highly touted Rick Roberson 6-foot-9 forward. Other veterans are center Jim Ard and guards Gordon Smith and Don Ogletree. Sophomore Dick Hauke rounds out the lineup.

The scoreboard tally read 25-0 at halftime and the crowd began chanting: "We want 100!"

Houston's high-scoring Cougars had answered the same call less than a week earlier, but this time they hardly took notice. They couldn't afford to ... not when the next point they scored would be their first.

Florida State, triggered by the pitch-catch combination of Bill Cappleman and Ron Sellers, beat Houston to the draw Friday night and whipped the Nation's No. 1 offensive team 40-20 in a prelude to the final fling of the college football season.

The 10th-ranked Cougars, who riddled Tulsa 100-6 last Saturday night after pasting Idaho 77-3 the previous weekend, didn't get their attack off the ground against the Seminoles until Cappleman and Sellers had virtually locked up the game with a first-half aerial blitz.

Cappleman wound up hitting on 25 or 34 passes for 353 yards and four touchdowns while Sellers, the all-time leader in yardage on pass receptions, caught 14 for 214 yards and one score on a 62-yard bomb. The victory

Jarvis Ready To Scuttle Navy Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Charley Jarvis is haunted by a fumble.

Jarvis is the Army fullback who has gained 1,022 yards and scored eight touchdowns this year. He'd trade each yard for the one that got away from him in the 1967 Army-Navy classic.

Navy led 19-14 before the sell-out crowd of 100,000 at John F. Kennedy Stadium. Army was driving with 4:53 remaining at the Middles' 25-yard line. Jarvis fumbled. Navy recovered and the Middles ran out the clock to preserve an upset.

Jarvis has a guilt complex. He feels he lost the game, that Army would have scored. Not even his accomplishment this season of breaking Glenn Davis' one-game rushing record can give Jarvis the sleep of a man at peace with the world. Charley is at war with Navy. Only a victory in today's 69th game between the two rivals can restore peace of mind.

Army is a two-touchdown favorite to make Jarvis happy. The Cadets have a 6-5 record against Navy's 2-7. Jarvis is one of the reason's for Army's record and its status as the favorite. He needs only 64-yards to shatter Davis' career record of 2,309-yards. The odds are he will make it against the rival which counts most to a West Point football player.

Vikings Beat Hamilton In Metro Loop Tilt, 73-48

Teays Valley's diminutive Vikings gave Coach Bob Hoover the first varsity win of his coaching career Friday, defeating host school Hamilton, 73-48.

The Vikings had little trouble with the Rangers in the Metropolitan League debut, and Hoover pulled his starting five shortly after the fourth quarter started. Thirteen Vikings got into the game and 11 of them broke into the scoring column.

Dale Lambert played an outstanding game according to Hoover. In addition to pacing the Teays Valley scoring with 16 points, he was the team's leading rebounder although he is only 5-feet 7-inches tall, and was a stalwart on defense.

Lambert scored six field goals and four foul shots. Wait

Newman tallied 15 points for the winners during his three quarters of action and pulled down eight rebounds.

ALSO hitting the twin-figure scoring mark for Teays Valley were Larry Dickson with 13 and Don Bell with ten.

Game scoring laurels went to Hamilton's John Cunningham, a 6-foot guard, who zipped 10 field goals through the nets and added seven points at the charity stripe.

Teays Valley made 25 of 31 foul shot attempts for an 81 per cent accuracy rate and connected on 42 per cent of the shots from the field.

The Vikings grabbed 51 rebounds in the game, had 11 turnovers and were credited with 12 assists.

Hamilton hit 10 of 27 at the free throw line, a 37 per cent average, and made only 31 per cent of the shots taken from the field.

In one other Metropolitan League game played Friday, West Jefferson, behind the 13 point scoring of Obie Folds and Craig Bandrum, defeated Franklin Heights, 66-55.

IN the Teays Valley-Hamilton reserve game, the young Vikings won 48-36. Bob Tucker paced the winning jayvee squad with 14 points, Jeff Helser scored 13 and Brent Roof 11.

Teays Valley hosts The Plains of Mt. Sterling tonight in a non-league game and then hosts West Jefferson and Reynoldsburg on successive nights next weekend.

Lakers Edge Celtics, 93-92, As 'Superstars' Pour It On

BOSTON (AP) — The National Basketball Association season is only a few weeks old but Wilt Chamberlain figures the Los Angeles Lakers have passed the turning point.

"This game should be the turning point for us," Chamberlain said Friday night after the Lakers rallied from a 58-44 deficit and shocked the Celtics 93-92 before a crowd of 14,929, largest NBA turnout in Boston history.

"Certainly this is our most significant win so far," pro basketball's all-time top scorer said. "You can't single out anyone as a key man. Everybody got into it, including guys like Cliff Anderson and Jay Carty, who hardly had been off the bench before."

Chamberlain, who had only 14 points as he concentrated on defense and play-making, disclosed that the Lakers, who had lost two straight, held a team meeting before the game.

"We decided that if our superstars were really superstars, we should be doing better," he said. "So everybody became a superstar after Boston got the big jump on us."

With Jerry West sidelined with flu, superstar Elgin Baylor topped the Lakers with 19 points, four more than Keith Erickson.

However, Mel Counts, one-time understudy to Boston player-coach Bill Russell, and former Providence star Johnny Egan played the key roles in the dramatic second-half comeback. Counts took control of the boards while Egan assumed charge of the attack.

In other NBA games Friday night, Cincinnati dropped Detroit 122-112, Baltimore took Phoenix 124-106, San Francisco ripped Milwaukee 140-119 and Chicago dropped San Diego 110-89.

Notre Dame, USC Clash; '65 Recalled

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In preparing to face Notre Dame's massive defensive line today, McKay probably had 1965 in mind.

Southern Cal was 4-0-1 and had one of the nation's top running backs in Mike Garrett when the Trojans moved into South Bend, Ind., that year. McKay's club wasn't favored but he felt they had a good chance.

The Irish line stopped Garrett cold for three quarters, took a 28-0 lead and then sent the subs in. Notre Dame won the game 28-8 and held the eventual Heisman Trophy winner to his lowest rushing total of the year.

Today's game, before a national television audience, is the final one for Notre Dame but USC has a berth in the Rose Bowl with No. 1-rated Ohio State.

McKay has another Heisman Trophy winner this year in O.J. Simpson. Where Garrett was small and shifty, Simpson is big and powerful and fast.

In 20 games, Simpson has led USC to 19 victories. The only defeat was a 3-0 squeaker to Oregon State last year.

Barry & Co. Top Kentucky; Win 133-109

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rick Barry might be the man to save the American Basketball Association, but at the moment he's killing most of the teams in it.

The league's leading scorer almost single-handedly demolished Kentucky Friday night with 45 points as the Oakland Oaks breezed along with a 133-109 victory at Louisville.

With Barry, who led the National Basketball Association in scoring before his celebrated jump to the ABA, leading the charge, the Oaks have won 16 of 18 games for a 64-per-cent lead over Los Angeles and New Orleans in the Western Division.

Los Angeles fell into the second place tie after dropping a 108-103 decision to Indiana at Indianapolis, while the Bucs trimmed Denver 131-128 in overtime at home in the only other game.

In the NBA, Los Angeles nipped Boston 93-92, Cincinnati stopped Detroit 122-112, Baltimore upended Phoenix 124-106, Chicago tripped San Diego 110-89 and San Francisco beat Milwaukee 140-119.

Barry led a 46-point charge in the second period that broke open a tight game and handed the Colonels their fourth straight loss despite Darel Carrier's 27 points.

IN the Teays Valley-Hamilton reserve game, the young Vikings won 48-36. Bob Tucker paced the winning jayvee squad with 14 points, Jeff Helser scored 13 and Brent Roof 11.

Vikings To Face Pepped-Up Rams

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Vikings, staggered by Baltimore and floored by the flu in the past week, hope to make a full recovery in the National Football League championship scramble Sunday.

But they're liable to find Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and the rest of the Los Angeles Rams' medicine men a bit too much to swallow.

Of 20 Minnesota players stricken with the flu before and after last Sunday's 21-9 loss to Baltimore, five regulars were reported still ailing Friday as Coach Bud Grant prepped the Vikings for their date with the rugged Rams.

But Grant expected all hands to be available when the two clubs put their division title hopes on the line at Minneapolis-St. Paul. And, if the Vikings' boss has his way, neither the Rams nor the virus will bug his team.

"It's not going to help afterward to say, 'Next time if everyone is in top shape things will be different,'" he said. "We think we can do certain things to beat this team, just as we feel we can beat every team we play."

The Vikings, 6-5, lead fast-closing Green Bay by one-half game in the Central Division struggle. The Rams, 9-1-1, trail the Colts by one-half length in the Coastal derby.

The New York Giants try to keep their faint pennant hopes alive against Cleveland's streaking Century leaders. The Giants are 2½ games behind Capitol front-runner Dallas with three to play. Green Bay visits San Francisco, Baltimore enters tains Atlanta, St. Louis is at Pittsburgh and Chicago at New Orleans.

Cleveland, which has reeled off six consecutive victories behind passer Bill Nelsen and power-running Leroy Kelly, should provide another stern test for the young Giant defenders. The Browns have averaged 34 points in eight games since Nelsen replaced veteran Frank Ryan at quarterback and Kelly has ground out 1,017 rushing yards to lead the league.

The Giants will be without defensive tackle Steve Wright, sidelined for the rest of the season with a pulled groin muscle.

Green Bay, seemingly out of contention a few weeks back, whipped Washington 27-7 last week behind sub quarterback Zeke Bratkowski and moved up on Minnesota. Bart Starr's bruised ribs have healed, but Bratkowski, who hit on 18 of 24 pass attempts against the Redskins, will be standing by again at San Francisco.

Vikings Beat Hamilton In Metro Loop Tilt, 73-48

Teays Valley's diminutive Vikings gave Coach Bob Hoover the first varsity win of his coaching career Friday, defeating host school Hamilton, 73-48.

The Vikings had little trouble with the Rangers in the Metropolitan League debut, and Hoover pulled his starting five shortly after the fourth quarter started. Thirteen Vikings got into the game and 11 of them broke into the scoring column.

Dale Lambert played an outstanding game according to Hoover. In addition to pacing the Teays Valley scoring with 16 points, he was the team's leading rebounder although he is only 5-feet 7-inches tall, and was a stalwart on defense.

Lambert scored six field goals and four foul shots. Walt

Newman tallied 15 points for the winners during his three quarters of action and pulled down eight rebounds.

ALSO hitting the twin-figure scoring mark for Teays Valley were Larry Dickson with 13 and Don Bell with ten.

Game scoring laurels went to Hamilton's John Cunningham, a 6-foot guard, who ripped 10 field goals through the nets and added seven points at the charity stripe.

Teays Valley made 25 of 31 foul shot attempts for an 81 per cent accuracy rate and connected on 42 per cent of the shots from the field.

The Vikings grabbed 51 rebounds in the game, had 11 turnovers and were credited with 12 assists.

Hamilton hit 10 of 27 at the free throw line, a 37 per cent average, and made only 31 per cent of the shots taken from the field.

In one other Metropolitan League game played Friday, West Jefferson, behind the 13 point scoring of Obie Folden and Craig Bandrum, defeated Franklin Heights, 66-55.

Lakers Edge Celtics, 93-92, As 'Superstars' Pour It On

BOSTON (AP) — The National Basketball Association season is only a few weeks old but Wilt Chamberlain figures the Los Angeles Lakers have passed the turning point.

"This game should be the turning point for us," Chamberlain said Friday night after the Lakers rallied from a 58-44 deficit and shocked the Celtics 93-92 before a crowd of 14,929, largest NBA turnout in Boston history.

"Certainly this is our most significant win so far," pro basketball's all-time top scorer said. "You can't single out anyone as a key man. Everybody got into it, including guys like Cliff Anderson and Jay Carty, who hardly had been off the bench before."

Chamberlain, who had only 14 points as he concentrated on defense and play-making, disclosed that the Lakers, who had lost two straight, held a team meeting before the game.

"We decided that if our superstars were really superstars, we should be doing better," he said. "So everybody became a superstar after Boston got the big jump on us."

With Jerry West sidelined with flu, superstar Elgin Baylor topped the Lakers with 19 points, four more than Keith Erickson.

However, Mel Counts, one-time understudy to Boston player-coach Bill Russell, and former Providence star Johnny Egan played the key roles in the dramatic second-half comeback. Counts took control of the boards while Egan assumed charge of the attack.

In other NBA games Friday night, Cincinnati dropped Detroit 122-112, Baltimore took Phoenix 124-106, San Francisco ripped Milwaukee 140-119 and Chicago dropped San Diego 110-89.

Notre Dame, USC Clash; '65 Recalled

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In preparing to face Notre Dame's massive defensive line today, McKay probably had 1965 in mind.

Southern Cal was 4-0-1 and had one of the nation's top running backs in Mike Garrett when the Trojans moved into South Bend, Ind., that year. McKay's club wasn't favored but he felt they had a good chance.

The Irish line stopped Garrett cold for three quarters, took a 28-0 lead and then sent the subs in. Notre Dame won the game 28-8 and held the eventual Heisman Trophy winner to his lowest rushing total of the year.

Today's game, before a national television audience, is the final one for Notre Dame but USC has a berth in the Rose Bowl with No. 1-rated Ohio State.

McKay has another Heisman Trophy winner this year in O.J. Simpson. Where Garrett was small and shifty, Simpson is big and powerful and fast.

In 20 games, Simpson has led USC to 19 victories. The only defeat was a 3-0 squeaker to Oregon State last year.

Barry & Co. Top Kentucky; Win 133-109

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rick Barry might be the man to save the American Basketball Association, but at the moment he's killing most of the teams in it.

The league's leading scorer almost single-handedly demolished Kentucky Friday night with 45 points as the Oakland Oaks breezed along with a 133-109 victory at Louisville.

With Barry, who led the National Basketball Association in scoring before his celebrated jump to the ABA, leading the charge, the Oaks have won 16 of 18 games for a 6 1/2-game lead over Los Angeles and New Orleans in the Western Division.

Los Angeles fell into the second place tie after dropping a 108-103 decision to Indiana at Indianapolis, while the Bucks trimmed Denver 131-128 in overtime at home in the only other games.

In the NBA, Los Angeles nipped Boston 93-92, Cincinnati stopped Detroit 122-112, Baltimore upended Phoenix 124-106, Chicago tripped San Diego 110-89 and San Francisco beat Milwaukee 140-119.

Barry led a 46-point charge in the second period that broke open a tight game and handed the Colonels their fourth straight loss despite Darel Carrier's 27 points.

Los Angeles Lakers have passed the turning point.

In other NBA games Friday night, Cincinnati dropped Detroit 122-112, Baltimore took Phoenix 124-106, San Francisco ripped Milwaukee 140-119 and Chicago dropped San Diego 110-89.

Los Angeles Lakers have passed the turning point.

"This game should be the turning point for us," Chamberlain said Friday night after the Lakers rallied from a 58-44 deficit and shocked the Celtics 93-92 before a crowd of 14,929, largest NBA turnout in Boston history.

"Certainly this is our most significant win so far," pro basketball's all-time top scorer said. "You can't single out anyone as a key man. Everybody got into it, including guys like Cliff Anderson and Jay Carty, who hardly had been off the bench before."

Chamberlain, who had only 14 points as he concentrated on defense and play-making, disclosed that the Lakers, who had lost two straight, held a team meeting before the game.

"We decided that if our superstars were really superstars, we should be doing better," he said. "So everybody became a superstar after Boston got the big jump on us."

With Jerry West sidelined with flu, superstar Elgin Baylor topped the Lakers with 19 points, four more than Keith Erickson.

However, Mel Counts, one-time understudy to Boston player-coach Bill Russell, and former Providence star Johnny Egan played the key roles in the dramatic second-half comeback. Counts took control of the boards while Egan assumed charge of the attack.

Vikings To Face Pepped-Up Rams

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Vikings, staggered by Baltimore and floored by the flu in the past week, hope to make a full recovery in the National Football League championship scramble Sunday.

But they're liable to find Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and the rest of the Los Angeles Rams' medicine men a bit too much to swallow.

Of 20 Minnesota players stricken with the flu before and after last Sunday's 21-9 loss to Baltimore, five regulars were reported still ailing Friday as Coach Bud Grant prepped the Vikings for their date with the rugged Rams.

But Grant expected all hands to be available when the two clubs put their division title hopes on the line at Minneapolis-St. Paul. And, if the Vikings' boss has his way, neither the Rams nor the virus will bug his team.

"It's not going to help afterward to say, 'Next time if everyone is in top shape things will be different,'" he said. "We think we can do certain things to beat this team, just as we feel we can beat every team we play."

The Vikings, 6-5, lead fast-closing Green Bay by one-half game in the Central Division struggle. The Rams, 9-1-1, trail the Colts by one-half length in the Coastal derby.

The New York Giants try to keep their faint pennant hopes alive against Cleveland's streaking Century leaders. The Giants are 2 1/2 games behind Capitol front-runner Dallas with three to play. Green Bay visits San Francisco, Baltimore enters at Pittsburgh and Chicago at New Orleans.

Cleveland, which has reeled off six consecutive victories behind passer Bill Nelsen and power-running Leroy Kelly, should provide another stern test for the young Giant defenders. The Browns have averaged 34 points in eight games since Nelsen replaced veteran Frank Ryan at quarterback and Kelly has ground out 1,017 rushing yards to lead the league.

The Giants will be without offensive tackle Steve Wright, sidelined for the rest of the season with a pulled groin muscle.

Green Bay, seemingly out of contention a few weeks back, whipped Washington 27-7 last week behind sub quarterback Zeke Bratkowski and moved up on Minnesota. Bart Starr's bruised ribs have healed, but Bratkowski, who hit on 18 of 24 pass attempts against the Redskins, will be standing by again at San Francisco.

UCLA, Purdue Mark Opening Of Cage Season

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The last year of the fantastic Low Alcindor era at UCLA starts tonight in Los Angeles with the opening of the college basketball season.

The agile 7-foot-2 giant, who has led UCLA to two straight National Collegiate titles, again will be the focus of all eyes at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, where the Bruins face the Purdue Boilermakers.

"We are facing one of the outstanding teams in the country," said Coach Johnny Wooden, whose Alcindor-led Bruins have won 59 of 60 games the last two seasons, including a winning streak of 47 in a row. Purdue's Rick Mount, one of last year's outstanding sophomores, will get a chance this time as a junior to show finesse against Alcindor, now a senior.

"Rick is doing a lot better than he did last year," said Purdue's coach, George King. As for Alcindor, Wooden says, "He's a lot stronger and more sure of himself. He can't help but be better."

The UCLA-Purdue game matches the No. 1 and No. 10 teams in the Associated Press pre-season poll. Second-ranked North Carolina doesn't open until next week, but No. 3 Kentucky opens at home against Xavier of Ohio.

Adolph Rupp, veteran Kentucky mentor who is the all-time winningest coach in college basketball, will be after career victory No. 783.

The fifth-ranked Kansas Jayhawks, with Olympic star Jo Jo White back for one semester, open at home against St. Louis and the sixth-ranked Davidson Wildcats also are at home to Virginia Military.

Other games involving the Top Ten in the AP poll find Southern Mississippi at No. 8 Houston and Abilene Christian at No. 9 New Mexico. Notre Dame, No. 4, and St. Bonaventure, No. 7, open next week like North Carolina.

THE CUP, BOYS!—If you can take your eyes off the lovely young lady for a moment, the cup is the item here. It's a $5,000 job and goes to the 1968 Hurricane Classic power boat race winner which launches the winter tourist season at St. Pete Beach, Fla. The young lady? She's Karen Kinney.

UCLA, Purdue Mark Opening Of Cage Season

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The last year of the fantastic Low Alcindor era at UCLA starts tonight in Los Angeles with the opening of the college basketball season.

The agile 7-foot-2 giant, who has led UCLA to two straight National Collegiate titles, again will be the focus of all eyes at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, where the Bruins face the Purdue Boilermakers.

"We are facing one of the outstanding teams in the country," said Coach Johnny Wooden, whose Alcindor-led Bruins have won 59 of 60 games the last two seasons, including a winning streak of 47 in a row.

Purdue's Rick Mount, one of last year's outstanding sophs, will get a chance this time as a junior to show finesse against Alcindor, now a senior.

"Rick is doing a lot better than he did last year," said Purdue's coach, George King. As for Alcindor, Wooden says, "He's a lot stronger and more sure of himself. He can't help but be better."

The UCLA-Purdue game matches the No. 1 and No. 10 teams in the Associated Press pre-season poll. Second-ranked North Carolina doesn't open until next week, but No. 3 Kentucky opens at home against Xavier of Ohio.

Adolph Rupp, veteran Kentucky mentor who is the all-time winningest coach in college basketball, will be after career victory No. 783.

The fifth-ranked Kansas Jayhawks, with Olympic star Jo Jo White back for one semester, open at home against St. Louis and the sixth-ranked Davidson Wildcats also are at home to Virginia Military.

Other games involving the Top Ten in The AP poll find Southern Mississippi at No. 8 Houston and Abilene Christian at No. 9 New Mexico. Notre Dame, No. 4, and St. Bonaventure, No. 7, open next week like North Carolina.

THE CUP, BOYS!—If you can take your eyes off the lovely young lady for a moment, the cup is the item here. It's a $5,000 job and goes to the 1968 Hurricane Classic power boat race winner which launches the winter tourist season at St. Pete Beach, Fla. The young lady? She's Karen Kinney.

Oakland Defeats Montreal, 5-4

Make it three in a row for the National Hockey League's expansionist West Division against the established East.

Oakland got two goals each from Ted Hampson and Billy Hicke and dropped Montreal 5-4 Friday night in the only game played.

Service Notes

In our home we have followed the practice for several years of not sending Christmas cards, locally, instead we obtain names and addresses from the newspapers of our boys and girls in service particularly those in Vietnam, Korea and overseas and send cards to them.

I have obtained addresses of some of our men — if anyone has one I will be glad to hear from you. Please send cards to:

Spec-4 David C. McAllister, RA 51882772, 588th Maint. Co., APO 96325, San Francisco, California.

Sp-4 Charles R. Whaley, U.S. 51881323, U. S. Army, Mortuary, Da Nang, APO San Francisco, 96337, Dr. 63.

Sp-5 Larry A. Whaley, RA 51880331, 412th TC. Det., C Trp. 7th-17th Cav., APO San Francisco, 96362.

M-Sgt. Carl Garrison, AF 15440287, 554 Civil Eng. Sqdn. (PACAF), APO San Francisco, 96321.

A-1C Neil V. Coleman, AF 23616740, 354SPRON Box 2009, APO San Francisco 96264.

Carl Garrison will observe 19 years in February in the service, his wife Ann, told me. Her niece, Toni Coey, of Chillicothe was a weekend guest of Ann and daughters, Robin and Tammy.

Bits and Pieces

Some people find a baby on their doorstep, but I found a sack of silverware. I had asked several if they had any old ware to give away because husband Bill wanted to take it to the hunting shack he shares with others in the mountains of West, Va. I strongly suspect the donor was Ruth Schleich — thanks much — haven't been able to phone you — your line is busy! It happens to be one of those 7 or 8 family lines.

Mystery

A real tragedy was barely averted the other morning when a local family was partially overcome with carbon monoxide. At the moment their names can not be revealed due to a family situation but do make sure all heaters etc. are vented and if any new ones are installed make extra sure the vents are proper size and that definitely they are vented. Sorry to be so mysterious but it is necessary. The important part is to check all vents!!

Hey Coach

The Jackson Jr. Hi boys have played two very good games (even though we lost). But remember, it isn't whether we won or lost but how the game was played (oh yeah).

Several parents had a long discussion at the 4-H dinner and, coach, everyone agreed — they wish you would play more of the boys — if not in league games how about more scrimmage games or is it only football they scrimmage?

However it goes, come on out and support the boys — they are in there pitching (no, that's baseball) Game time: Wednesday after school. See you there.

Senior Citizen

Our gal today is one I love to talk to and hear and unfortunately at the moment she is quite ill.

Her parents were Elza and Zula Cook and she was born May 10, 1893 in Yellowbud, a small hamlet in Ross County.

Iris Cook Martindill lived there for 27 years and then moved to Jackson Twp. From there home was in Wayne Twp. and then Deercreek Twp. where she and husband and son, John, farmed the Cary Brown farm approximately 25 years. She has one sister, Marlene, (Mrs. Earl Metzger) still living.

Mrs. M. could really play the piano and for years and years was pianist at the EUB Church, Yellowbud, where she is still a member. In recent years arthritis has affected her hands and curtailed her piano playing.

About seven years ago she had a very serious stroke but to the amazement of all she recovered and did her own housework, gardening and even climbed a ladder to paint on the house and wash windows. When it comes to spunk and determination no one can top, Mrs. M.

As mentioned earlier, she is ill and a patient at Berger Hospital and scheduled to be taken Wednesday to the Monterey Nursing Home, Hoover Road, Grove City, Ohio. May I suggest everyone in town send her a card and really make it a card shower. She will enjoy it so much.

Saxbe Awed By Victory In Election

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen.-elect William B. Saxbe admits he's still a little awed at going to Washington.

"The very fact I got elected is a continuing surprise," Saxbe said Friday. "It didn't seem possible I could pull the thing off."

The 52-year-old Republican attorney general won the U.S. Senate seat by defeating John J. Gilligan on Nov. 5.

Saxbe told newsmen Friday that his campaign cost more than half a million dollars, although no official campaign expense statement has been filed yet.

Saxbe, just back from a three-week vacation abroad, said he found that the Europeans' attitude toward America was good, except for the Vietnam war.

"They feel we should get out of Vietnam and so do I," he said.

Saxbe said he sincerely believes that President-elect Richard M. Nixon will bring an end to the war, and that Nixon will be dedicated in trying to bring the United States together again.

Before he becomes settled in his new job, Saxbe plans to seek the opinions of Ohioans as to how he should represent them.

"I want to arrange meetings around the state with farm leaders and mayors and city managers to get their ideas on the role of the federal government," he said.

If the meetings cannot be arranged before he is sworn in Jan. 3, Saxbe said he will return to the state. Gov. James A. Rhodes has pledged to help him set up the meetings.

U.S. Troops Maul North Viet Unit

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen mauled a North Vietnamese battalion near the Cambodian border and American infantrymen decimated a strong Viet Cong force in the Mekong Delta, the U.S. Command reported today.

Elsewhere 140 captured Viet Cong shouting anti-Communist slogans were turned loose on the streets of three South Vietnamese cities in a government effort to win over guerrilla troops and strengthen Saigon's position at the Paris peace talks.

Military spokesmen said U.S. 9th Division infantrymen and helicopter gunships killed 70 guerrillas in the marshlands near Cai Ly early today 50 miles southwest of Saigon. The infantrymen also captured 20 suspects.

The spokesman said another

Highway Toll For Holiday At 400 Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Thanksgiving weekend traffic death toll climbed past the 400 mark today.

The count was 403 early today in this four-day weekend that began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

During a recent nonholiday weekend of the same length The Associated Press counted 530 highway deaths.

Last year, the toll for the Thanksgiving weekend was 685. The National Safety Council made no advance estimate of traffic deaths for the holiday period. It regards Thanksgiving as a time when people visit close to home and there is little increase in highway travel.

The record for any Thanksgiving holiday occurred in 1966 when 748 persons were killed on the nation's roads. The figure is also a record for any holiday period.

In 1960, the fewest number of fatalities over a Thanksgiving holiday period, 442, occurred.

Some people find a baby on their doorstep, but I found a sack of silverware. I had asked several if they had any old ware to give away because husband Bill wanted to take it to the hunting shack he shares with others in the mountains of West, Va. I strongly suspect the donor

Mystery

A real tragedy was barely averted the other morning, when a local family was partially overcome with carbon monoxide. At the moment their names can not be revealed due to a family situation but do make sure all heaters etc. are vented and if any new ones are installed make extra sure the vents are proper size and that definitely they are vented. Sorry to be so mysterious but it is necessary. The important part is to check all vents!!

Hey Coach

The Jackson Jr. Hi boys have played two very good games (even though we lost). But remember, it isn't whether we won or lost but how the game was played (oh yeah).

Several parents had a long discussion at the 4-H dinner and, coach, everyone agreed — they wish you would play more of the boys — if not in league games how about more scrimmage games or is it only football they scrimmage?
However it goes, come on out and support the boys — they are in there pitching (no, that's baseball) Game time! Wednesday after school. See you there.

Senior Citizen

Our gal today is one I love to talk to and hear and unfortunately at the moment she is quite ill.

Her parents were Elza and Zula Cook and she was born May 10, 1893 in Yellowbud, a small hamlet in Ross County.

Iris Cook Martindill lived there for 27 years and then moved to Jackson Twp. From there home was in Wayne Twp. and then Decercreek Twp. where she and husband and son, John, farmed the Cary Brown farm approximately 25 years. She has one sister, Marlene, (Mrs. Earl Metzger) still living.

Mrs. M. could really play the piano and for years and years was pianist at the EUB Church, Yellowbud, where she is still a member. In recent years arthritis has affected her hands and curtailed her piano playing.

About seven years ago she had a very serious stroke but to the amazement of all she recovered and did her own housework, gardening and even climbed a ladder to paint on the house and wash windows. When it comes to spunk and determination no one can top, Mrs. M.

As mentioned earlier, she is ill and a patient at Berger Hospital and scheduled to be taken Wednesday to the Monterey Nursing Home, Hoover Road, Grove City, Ohio. May I suggest everyone in town send her a card and really make it a card shower. She will enjoy it so much.

Saxbe Awed By Victory In Election

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen.-elect William B. Saxbe admits he's still a little awed at going to Washington.

"The very fact I got elected is a continuing surprise," Saxbe said Friday. "It didn't seem possible I could pull the thing off."

The 52-year-old Republican attorney general won the U.S. Senate seat by defeating John J. Gilligan on Nov. 5.

Saxbe told newsmen Friday that his campaign cost more than half a million dollars, although no official campaign expense statement has been filed yet.

Saxbe, just back from a three-week vacation abroad, said he found that the Europeans' attitude toward America was good, except for the Vietnam war.

"They feel we should get out of Vietnam and so do I," he said.

Saxbe said he sincerely believes that President-elect Richard M. Nixon will bring an end to the war, and that Nixon will be dedicated in trying to bring the United States together again.

Before he becomes settled in his new job, Saxbe plans to seek the opinions of Ohioans as to how he should represent them.

"I want to arrange meetings around the state with farm leaders and mayors and city managers to get their ideas on the role of the federal government," he said.

If the meetings cannot be arranged before he is sworn in Jan. 3, Saxbe said he will return to the state. Gov. James A. Rhodes has pledged to help him set up the meetings.

U.S. Troops Maul North Viet Unit

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen mauled a North Vietnamese battalion near the Cambodian border and American infantrymen decimated a strong Viet Cong force in the Mekong Delta, the U.S. Command reported today.

Elsewhere 140 captured Viet Cong shouting anti-Communist slogans were turned loose on the streets of three South Vietnamese cities in a government effort to win over guerrilla troops and strengthen Saigon's position at the Paris peace talks.

Military spokesmen said U.S. 9th Division infantrymen and helicopter gunships killed 70 guerrillas in the marshlands near Cai Ly early today 50 miles southwest of Saigon. The infantrymen also captured 20 suspects.

Highway Toll For Holiday At 400 Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Thanksgiving weekend traffic death toll climbed past the 400 mark today.

The count was 403 early today in this four-day weekend that began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

During a recent nonholiday weekend of the same length The Associated Press counted 530 highway deaths.

Last year, the toll for the Thanksgiving weekend was 685.

The National Safety Council made no advance estimate of traffic deaths for the holiday period. It regards Thanksgiving as a time when people visit close to home and there is little increase in highway travel.

The record for any Thanksgiving holiday occurred in 1966 when 748 persons were killed on the nation's roads. The figure is also a record for any holiday period.

In 1960, the fewest number of fatalities over a Thanksgiving holiday period, 442, occurred.
